MEMORANDUM FOR HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

SUBJECT: Official U.S. Government Travel to the USSR

Effective immediately, all official travel by United States Government personnel to the Soviet Union is to be cleared (or recleared) by the Executive Secretary of the National Security Council. The NSC will submit the proposed travel request to the Department of State for review prior to clearance, and requests should be submitted in sufficient time to permit both State and NSC review. This clearance procedure applies both to intended travel and to travel already scheduled. While this procedure is in effect, personnel of the United States Government shall not fly into or out of the Soviet Union.

FOR THE PRESIDENT:

William P. Clark
